

Medical Students Appreciation Lunch

The Vanier Social Pediatric Hub staff hosted an appreciation lunch on Friday, June 10th for our volunteer medical students. The medical students play an important part in helping the Vanier Social Pediatric Hub deliver our services. The students facilitated the monthly delivery of food to families and provided a social check in during their visits.

Thank you to our medical students for helping us support Vanier Social Pediatric Hub families!